Patricia Scoular Recognized for Excellence as a Mental Health Professional

Ms. Scoular elevates clients' lives with Love From the Inside

LADYSMITH, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, December 22, 2015, Patricia Scoular, Registered Professional Counsellor for Love From the Inside, has been recognized by Worldwide Branding for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in providing mental health support.

Ms. Scoular is dedicated to empowering clients to live healthy and harmonious lives. She specializes in psychology and therapy, but also has a working knowledge of writing assessment and small business administration. Relying on her administrative skills, Ms. Scoular is able to manage her own business, Love From the Inside through which she prides herself on building client relationships, and helping them explore feelings and emotions related to life experiences. Ms. Scoular aims for client comfort in an effort to help people open up regarding personal issues and move forward in life.

Prior to a career in counselling, Ms. Scoular worked with seniors as a care aide for 21 years. She made the decision to become a counsellor afterward and earned a Diploma in Applied Psychology and Counselling from Kelowna College of Professional Counselling. In fact, while a student, she received the Proficiency Examination Award. Ms. Scoular complements her counseling career as a reiki master, certified in healing touch level one and level two. She is also certified in Indian head massage. Ms. Scoular is affiliated with the Canadian Professional Counsellor's Association as the President of the Regional Management Team and a British Columbia Marketing Representative.
